

Coverage College 2019

10.24.19

The 13th Annual White and Williams LLP Coverage College® is coming to the Pennsylvania Convention Center on October 24, 2019. The College provides an opportunity for insurance professionals to engage in a rigorous study of a diverse insurance coverage curriculum. Last year's Coverage College brought together 300 students representing more than 150 companies from 19 states.

This year, students can choose from 12 Masters Classes on a variety of coverage and liability issues. The College also features three General Sessions that will address cyber security and the insurance industry, provide practical advice regarding bad faith issues and discuss unique CGL policy provisions..

Coverage College is pending approval for CE and CLE credit in various states, including Texas Department of Insurance Continuing Education Credits and Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Credits.

The College also includes breakfast, lunch, two breaks and a cocktail reception, allowing students to interact and engage with the faculty, fellow students and sponsors throughout the day.

We look forward to seeing you back at school this fall!

Space for Coverage College is limited. Be sure to register today! Visit CoverageCollege.com for more information and registration details.
