

Innovators and Investors: The Journey From Entry to Exit

Life Sciences Collaborative (Philadelphia, PA)
3.3.20

PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate and Securities

White and Williams LLP is a proud collaborator of the 7th annual Life Sciences Collaborative Conference, "Innovators and Investors: The Journey From Entry to Exit," on Tuesday, March 3, 2020. This year's conference will explore the full life-cycle of life sciences innovation from licensing and technology transfers to pricing, funding and exits.

Ryan Udell, Partner and Chair of the White and Williams Corporate and Securities Group, will moderate a panel of successful entrepreneurs and distinguished investment bankers and private equity investors, as they discuss the current life sciences deal market and experiences in leading companies through strategic transactions.

A detailed agenda and registration is found here.

The Life Sciences Collaborative is a select group of industry veterans and executives from the pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and medical device sectors, and industry service providers who share a common vision of increasing the success of emerging life sciences businesses in the Mid-Atlantic Region.
