White and Williams Represents Litigation Loan Servicing Company in $9 Million Litigation Lien Portfolio Acquisition

6.5.19

White and Williams represented a national litigation loan origination and servicing company in the acquisition of a $9 million litigation lien portfolio from a registered investment fund, which was financed through a simultaneous portfolio resale to an alternative investment fund. Corporate counsel Carl Koerner and associate Jeremy Miller completed the transaction, with assistance on securities matters from partner Alexandria Kane and tax matters from John Eagan.
