

White and Williams Recovers High-Six Figure Damages for Insurer in Settlement of Unpaid Premium Dispute

6.29.16

White and Williams secured a high six-figure settlement in favor of a major insurance company in a contract dispute over unpaid premiums due under multiple liability insurance policies. After the insured corporation contested a post-policy audit of the premiums and refused to remit the additional premium amounts due, the insurer brought suit to recover the unpaid premium amounts plus applicable interest. Sean P. Mahoney tried the case to jury verdict and ultimately obtained a high six-figure damages award in favor of the insurer. White and Williams then negotiated a settlement with the insured corporation in which the insurer recovered nearly all of the outstanding amount due.
