

White and Williams Sponsors Narberth Ambulance's 2019 "Main Line Bike Race"

8.5.19

White and Williams is proud to sponsor the 2019 Narberth Ambulance "Main Line Bike Race" on August 11, 2019 in Ardmore, PA.

The "Main Line Bike Race" is an annual event put on by Narberth Ambulance, Medic 313 in Montgomery County, PA. The race is a Criterium-style bike race that consists of a one-mile loop through the business district of Ardmore. The exciting race will be completed by riders dozens of times throughout the day, providing hours of excitement for nearly 1,000 spectators. In addition to the primary race, there will be a community race for children, as well as a Family Fun Zone. To register for the race or to volunteer, please find more information here. The Family Fun Zone is free and open to the public.

Narberth Ambulance is a combination of volunteer and career emergency personnel that provides 911 emergency medical services to Lower Merion Township and the Narberth, Conshohocken and West Conshohocken boroughs. General Litigation Partner Dave Zaslow has been an active volunteer member of Narberth Ambulance since 1985 and currently serves as the President and Assistant Chief and a paramedic for the organization.
