White and Williams LLP is proud to announce that Bridget La Rosa, Chair of the Trusts and Estates Practice Group, was named Managing Partner of our Stamford, Connecticut office. Bridget has been with our firm since 2018 and has chaired the Trust and Estates Practice since January 2022.

"Bridget is a dynamic leader of the Trusts and Estates Practice and is well-respected among her clients," stated Tim Davis, the firm's Managing Partner. "Her general management abilities along with her high attention to detail are qualities we believe will contribute to her success as our Stamford Office Managing Partner. We are excited to see where her leadership takes the Stamford office in the future," commented Tim.

Bridget's practice focuses on estate and tax planning, wealth transfer and estate and trust administration for New York, Connecticut and Pennsylvania residents, and in this new position, she will take with her over 25 years of experience in the legal industry. She has extensive experience with the administration of complicated estates, including tax audits with the IRS and dealings with the Art Advisory Panel. Bridget has been recognized as one of the New York Metro Region Super Lawyers in the area of Estate Planning & Probate from 2016 to 2024. As an active member of her community, Bridget was recognized for her work with the City Bar Justice Center's Jeremy G. Epstein Award for Pro Bono Service in 2017 and has served on the Association of the Bar of the City of New York's Trusts, Estates and Surrogate's Court Committee, Estate and Gift Taxation Committee. She is also a panel member and volunteer of the Justice Center's Planning and Estates Law Project.
