Clara Krivoy, Partner and Chair of the firm's Latin America and Blockchain and Digital Assets Practice Groups, was recently named by Latinvex as one of Latin America's "Top 100 Lawyers" for 2025. Clara was recognized in the Corporate/M&A and Tax Categories for her work advising international clients on cross-border matters across the region.

The Latinvex ranking highlights leading attorneys from international law firms doing business in Latin America, based on extensive research and a comprehensive survey of global firms.

With 30 years of experience in the legal field, Clara has focused her practice on cross-border transactions, regulatory compliance, and dispute resolution involving Latin America, the Caribbean, Spain, and Portugal, as well as the rapidly evolving Web3 ecosystem and digital assets space.

She has been ranked by Chambers Global, highlighted by The Legal 500 Latin America for her work with Latin American family offices, and recognized in The Legal 500 US – Fintech. In addition, Clara has been named a Notable Woman in Law by Crain's New York Business, honored by Super Lawyers, and has received a Corporate Counsel's Women, Influence & Power in Law award. She been recognized as one of the Latinvex Top 100 Female Lawyers in Latin America since 2016.
