

Felix Yelin Appointed Chancellor of the Brandeis Law Society

12.4.19

Associate Felix Yelin has been appointed Chancellor of the Brandeis Law Society. Felix was announced as Chancellor at the annual Louis D. Brandeis Law Society Chanukah Party held at the National Museum of American Jewish History on December 3, 2019.

Felix also served as the Brandeis Law Society's Corresponding Secretary, Executive Board Member and Vice Chancellor. He has participated in and helped organize Wills for Heroes volunteer events to assist first responders with life estate documents.

The Louis D. Brandeis Law Society, the Jewish law society, is dedicated to advancing and enriching the personal and professional interests of members of the bench and bar. The Louis D. Brandeis Law Society Foundation serves as the charitable arm of the Louis D. Brandeis Law Society.
