

Gary Biehn Discusses US-China Relations Under the Biden Administration

World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia China Club
2.26.21

On February 18, 2021, the World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia's (WTCGP) China Club hosted Partner Gary Biehn, Chairman of the WTCGP, and Anna Ashton, Vice President of the US-China Business Council for a discussion on U.S.-China relations under the Biden administration. The event was attended by China Club members and invited guests from the business community, representatives of Pennsylvania State government and non-profit organizations. Ms. Ashton provided her perspective on priority issues to anticipate in the U.S.-China bilateral and commercial relationship, with insight shared from US-China Business Council Members.
