

White and Williams LLP Named “Litigation Standout 2026” in Complex Commercial Litigation

10.3.25

White and Williams LLP has been recognized by BTI Consulting Group as a “Litigation Standout 2026” in Complex Commercial Litigation, placing us among the top 19% of litigation firms nationwide. BTI’s annual rankings are based on market analytics and direct feedback from corporate clients, highlighting firms that deliver exceptional results.

Our Commercial Litigation Department collaborates closely with business executives, in-house counsel, and colleagues across practice groups to provide top tier, client-focused legal solutions for high stakes business disputes. Our team includes seasoned lawyers who litigate and try complex commercial disputes throughout the country in state and federal courts and in private arbitrations.

We serve a broad spectrum of clients—from entrepreneurs and mid-size businesses to international Fortune 100 companies. Our clients include publicly and privately held corporations, investment funds, financial institutions, technology companies, manufacturers, distributors, insurance companies, insurance brokers, sureties, construction companies, healthcare organizations, security companies, higher education institutions, and professional services firms.

KEY ATTORNEYS

Siobhan K. Cole

Thomas B. Fiddler

PRACTICE AREAS

Commercial Litigation