

White and Williams Sponsors CRE Finance Council's 2019 January Conference

1.10.19

White and Williams is proud to sponsor the CRE Finance Council's January Conference, the organization's premier event. For over 19 years, the conference has brought together recognized finance leaders to address the most relevant topics facing the industry with valuable networking opportunities taking place throughout the event. The conference will be held January 14-16, 2019 in Miami, Florida.

The CRE Finance Council is the trade association for the $4.2 trillion commercial real estate industry. Members include balance sheet and securitized lenders, loan and bond investors, private equity firms, servicers and rating agencies, among others.
