

Collaborative Leadership in Design & Construction in the Age of COVID - 19

WEBINAR

04.14.2020 | 10:00-11:00 AM

Event Sponsor: AIANYS

Join Tara Mulrooney, Partner, as she participates in an interactive discussion with a panel of lawyers, architects and construction professionals as they explore ways to navigate the issues facing projects in the age of COVID-19.

The panelists will explore the practical and contractual implications of this process; how contractors, designers and attorney's work through this unprecedented time while staying within legal boundaries; and will share experience and best practices with technical and communication tools.

The information provided during this webinar does not, and is not intended to, constitute legal advice; instead, all information, content, and materials available during this webinar are for general informational purposes only.

Moderator

- Kelly Hayes McAlonie, FAIA, Director of Campus Planning, University of Buffalo

Panelists

- Jim Barriere, Esq., Partner, Hinckley Allen Snyder
- Joel Lipsky, President, Lipsky Construction
- Tara Mulrooney, Esq., Partner, Zetlin & De Chiara LLP
- Kirk Narburgh, FAIA, CEO/Managing Partner, King + King Architects, LLP
- Michael Spinelli, Esq., AIA, President, Nassau Suffolk Engineering & Architecture, PLLC
- Carl Stewart, III, Vice President & General Manager, Turner Construction

Staff

- Georgi Bailey, CAE, Hon. AIA, Executive Director, AIANYS, gabailey@aianys.org
- Joe Hogan, Vice President Building Services, AGC NYS, jhogan@agcnys.org
- Michael Cocca, Director of Education and Marketing, AIANYS mcoccal@aianys.org
- Molly Bibisi, Associate Director Education, AIANYS, mbibisi@aianys.org

Webinar Format

The presentation will cover three areas:

1. The Here and Now: The Project is Proceeding
2. Be Aware: The Project is Shut Down!
3. Looking Down the Road: 60-90 Day Bid Opportunities

You can register here.

PRACTICE AREAS

Contract Negotiation & Preparation

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution