

Residential Development HVAC System Installation Arbitration

We were the lead counsel in an arbitration proceeding over the installation of a new HVAC system in a 2,820 unit, 15 building apartment complex in Manhattan, New York. The arbitration involved engineering and construction issues and expert testimony proved critical in the 6 months of hearings. We represented the national engineering firm. $9 million.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution