

Owner's Claim for Inadequate Construction

We prosecuted claims of property owners for damages caused by inadequate construction practices. The ownership/development team selected us to represent their interests as they believed they needed sophisticated construction counsel to prosecute their claims. Our team uncovered a number of issues that ultimately led to important retrofits of the project.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution