

Rebuilding of a Prominent Theatre in New York City's Famed Theatre District

We represented the lead architect in an arbitration concerning a contract dispute with the owner and contractor over the rebuilding and updating of a prominent theatre in New York City. The historic nature of the structure along with severe schedule restraints ultimately challenged the success of the project. We successfully defended all claims.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution