

Southern California Museum

We are representing a prestigious architectural firm in connection with claims of breach of contract and copyright infringement in relation to a museum project in Southern California. Our continued representation involved contract interpretation strategy and defense of unsubstantiated allegations. Damage claims are being sought in excess of $12 million.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution