

Residential Development Litigation

We represented a construction consulting firm in a large residential development. The construction consultant was sued along with other parties by the board of a high-end residential community in New Jersey. After a three month trial the jury returned a defense verdict in favor of our client.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution