

Clark Art Institute Museum Expansion

02.10.2020

We represented the engineer of record in a high profile dispute with the contractor involving the design and installation of the glass building façade. The dispute centered around complex issues surrounding design delegation attributes in the contracts for construction. We employed a creative mediation process that resolved the dispute quickly for the museum and resulted in a favorable outcome for our client.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution