

Columbia University Science Facility Contractor Dispute

We are representing Columbia University, an internationally renowned Ivy League university, in a dispute with a contractor in connection with work on its Jerome L Greene Science Center, home to the Mort Zuckerman Mind Brain Behavior Institute, at its uptown, Manhattanville campus. The $6.3 billion project is a high-tech, sophisticated medical research facility. The dispute involves multi-million dollars in delay and disputed work claims with the contractor.

To see a video of the successful oral argument on Appeal on behalf of the Trustees of Columbia University, click here.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution