

Multinational Energy Firm Dispute With An European Equipment Supplier

Zetlin & De Chiara represented a multinational energy firm operating a sophisticated network of photovoltaic solar plants in a dispute with an European equipment supplier, analyzing the merits of the client's claims and initiating arbitration proceedings arising from deficiencies and breaches of warranty of critical equipment totaling tens of millions of dollars.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution