

License Negotiations for the Development of Residential High-Rise

We represented the property owner for the development of a Manhattan residential high rise. As part of our service, we simultaneously negotiated license agreements with nine different neighboring property owners covering varying levels of protection and impact upon the properties.

PRACTICE AREAS

Contract Negotiation & Preparation