

Arbitration Award in Favor of Worldwide Residential Building Developer

We successfully obtained a multi-million dollar arbitration award on behalf of our client, a large international developer of residential buildings in Manhattan in claims against its contractor, who delayed the project past substantial completion, caused defective work to be installed at the project and wrongfully terminated its contract.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution