

Private School Drainage System

We represented the architect of an exclusive French private school based in Manhattan against claims of errors and omissions related to the construction of the premises. The claims against the architect included claims of flawed design and installation of sub grade drainage system. We were able to successfully defend such claims and submit expert opinions that the alleged design issues were related to ____ methods of construction.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution