

Science Museum Litigation in Connecticut

We represented a structural engineer of a nine-story science museum located in Connecticut against errors and omissions claims. In addition to the errors and omissions claims against the structural engineer, the museum asserted claims of delays and cost overruns. With the assistance of our experts, we were able to reach a successful resolution of the matter.

PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation & Alternative Dispute Resolution