Zetlin & De Chiara has extensive experience in crafting construction contracts and handling dispute resolutions for Airport projects including, terminals and internal spaces such as lounges and roadways. We have been involved with recent projects at LaGuardia and Kennedy International airports.

The following are select representative matters:

Delay Claim at International Airport

We successfully litigated a delay claim centered around the construction of a major expansion of the infrastructure of an international airport.

IPD Construction Contracts for an Airport Terminal

We negotiated and crafted an Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) agreement for the renovation of an executive lounge at a terminal in a major New York City airport.

IPD Contracts for the Renovation of an Airline Terminal at JFK

We negotiated and crafted the IPD contract for the renovation of one of the busiest passenger terminals at JFK. The project will cost about about $150M.

IPD Project at LaGuardia Airport

We drafted and negotiated the agreements for an Integrated Project Delivery (IPD) construction approach for the renovation of an executive lounge at LaGuardia Airport.

Logan Airport Expansion Project Dispute

A major terminal expansion at Logan Airport in Boston, Massachusetts, resulted in various deficiency claims.

Multi-Million Dollar Airport Terminal Design Defect Claim

We represented a leading design professional in connection with a multi-million dollar design defect claim arising out of the design and construction at an airport.

Newark Airport Terminal Renovation Design Contracts

We negotiated and drafted the design contracts for the renovation of an airline terminal at Newark Airport in New Jersey.
