Founded in 2002, the Beverly Willis Architecture Foundation (BWAf), a nonprofit 501 (c)(3) organization, advances the knowledge and recognition of women's contributions to architecture. Initially organized as a grant giving non-profit, the BWAf supported research that would expand knowledge about women's contributions to twentieth-century American architecture by uncovering their lost histories and restoring them to the historical record. It now also embraces issues specific to women currently working within the building industry. To this end, BWAf both commissions and curates research that pertains to women working at all levels within all fields of practice—including architecture, engineering, construction, design, landscape, preservation, and planning.

Zetlin & De Chiara LLP provides sophisticated legal and business counsel and advice to members of the construction community across the country including real estate owners and developers, design professionals, construction managers and contractors, and financial institutions.
