

Women Builders Counsel Recognizes Zetlin & De Chiara Attorneys Anazette Ray and Maria Kefalas

10.19.2023

Women Builders Council (WBC) recently named associate attorney Anazette Ray as one of its 2023 Outstanding Women at its 18th Annual Champion Awards Gala for her construction law practice. This honor recognizes Ms. Ray's remarkable achievements, leadership, and innovation in the construction industry.

WBC also awarded associate attorney Maria Kefalas as one of its 2023 WBC Next Generation of Women Builders for her construction law practice at Zetlin & De Chiara LLP. Being honored as a next generation woman builder celebrates Ms. Kefalas' ability to advance and shape the future of construction and its related industries, while breaking gender barriers and inspiring the next generation of female professionals in the field.

Established in 2004, the Women Builders Council (WBC) represents women in the construction industry, with a special focus on leadership, and is one of the leading voices for women business owners and women professionals in construction.
