

Kimberly Barcella Joins Zetlin & De Chiara LLP

04.09.2024

Kimberly Quintano Barcella has joined Zetlin & De Chiara LLP as Of Counsel in its New York Office. She brings nearly a decade of experience representing owners, architects, engineers, construction managers and contractors in a variety of aspects of the construction & design process. Ms. Barcella has experience with construction & design litigation, as well as handling sophisticated transactional work, including construction contracts, design professional agreements and adjacent construction access agreements.

"We are very fortunate to have Kim join our firm, as she has established herself as a top construction attorney" said Zetlin & De Chiara LLP Managing Partner, Michael J. Vardaro. "Her knowledge and experience will bolster our firm's ability to represent construction and design clients in various industries and across the country."

Prior to joining Zetlin & De Chiara, Ms. Barcella was a Partner in the Construction & Design practice of a prominent New York-based law firm where she practiced for nearly 10 years. During law school, she served as an Associate Editor of the Fordham International Law Journal and participated in Fordham's Ireland Summer Law Program, where she held an internship with the Irish Refugee Council.

Ms. Barcella holds a degree from Loyola University in History, and a law degree from Fordham University School of Law.
