

Jaimee L. Nardiello Recognized in 2025 Women in Construction Spotlight by NYREJ

New York Real Estate Journal
02.26.2025

Partner Jaimee Nardiello was recognized by New York Real Estate Journal (NYREJ) in its 2025 Women in Construction Spotlight for her leadership in construction law. This annual spotlight recognizes noteworthy accomplishments and praiseworthy contributions of women that are making a lasting impact across the New York A/E/C industry.

The profile highlights how Ms. Nardiello continuously devotes her time to the development of women in real estate and construction law, including through her appointment as Chair of the Diversity Committee for the ABA Forum on Construction Law, for which she previously served as a former member of the Governing Committee. The Forum's mission is to serve the construction industry through education and leadership while building the best construction lawyers. At Zetlin & De Chiara LLP, Jaimee leads the firm's DEI efforts, and focus on associate mentorship. She also encourages women to give back to rising females in the industry. Ms. Nardiello also devotes substantial time to the professional development of women in real estate and construction, as a current Board Member of Commercial Real Estate Women of New York (CREWNY).
