

NYC Council Committee on Housing and Buildings Begin Hearings on Construction Safety Act

The City Council Committee on Housing and Buildings begins hearings today on the Construction Safety Act, a package of 21 bills. The story below summarizes the key proposals and articulates the concerns of advocates and opponents on various proposals.

<http://www.crainsnewyork.com/article/20170131/BLOGS04/170139974>