

Zetlin & De Chiara Partner James Terry Receives Top Rating

12.30.2011

Zetlin & De Chiara LLP, the region's leading construction law firm, is proud to announce that partner James J. Terry was recently awarded the legal industry's lauded AV rating from Martindale Hubbell. The Martindale-Hubbell® Peer Review Rating attests to a lawyer's legal ability and professional ethics and is based on the candid feedback and opinions of other lawyers. Mr. Terry received positive recommendations from more than 20 fellow attorneys.

"Jim has been focused on delivering excellent legal counsel to the construction industry for over 30 years," said Patricia Harris, Managing Partner of Zetlin & De Chiara LLP. "We are proud that his service has been so enthusiastically acknowledged by fellow counsel."

Mr. Terry focuses his practice on litigation, contract preparation and negotiation, and general counseling for contractors, design professionals, owners, developers, sureties and others in the construction industry. Prior to joining Zetlin & De Chiara, Mr. Terry served as Vice President/General Counsel of F.J. Sciame Construction Co., Inc, and as a Partner of Winston & Strawn.
